

Co■Creation Through Adinkra

Co■creation begins with learning. We bring knowledge, experience and curiosity into a shared process. These symbols explore how we listen, learn and build understanding together.

Insert Symbol

Sankofa

Return and learn from the past. Wisdom comes from reflecting on experience and carrying knowledge forward. Challenges and failures can become part of future success when we learn from them.

Insert Symbol

Nyansapo

The wisdom knot. A symbol of knowledge, learning and the thoughtful use of experience. Good decisions come from reflection, understanding and shared insight.

Insert Symbol

Mate Masie

I have heard and understood. This symbol represents deep listening and the respect that comes from truly hearing others and valuing different perspectives.

Insert Symbol

Akoma

The heart. A symbol of patience, empathy and emotional understanding. Co■creation requires care, generosity and the willingness to understand others.

Trust and Shared Agreements

People can only contribute honestly when they feel safe. Trust and shared agreements create the conditions that allow collaboration to thrive.

Insert Symbol

Eban

A fence around the home. This symbol represents safety, protection and belonging. People share ideas more openly when they feel secure.

Insert Symbol

Nkonsonkonson

The chain. A symbol of unity and shared responsibility. Our actions are connected and affect the whole group.

Insert Symbol

Akoma Ntoaso

Extension of the heart. A symbol of shared agreements and commitments between people. Clear principles help groups collaborate openly.

Insert Symbol

Nyame Nti

By God's grace. A symbol of faith and trust in something greater than ourselves and the value of shared purpose.

Working Together

Co■creation brings different perspectives into one space. These symbols explore how groups collaborate, challenge ideas and move forward together.

Insert Symbol

Funtunfunefu Denkyemfunefu

Two crocodiles sharing one stomach. Different perspectives can exist within a shared purpose and outcome.

Insert Symbol

Bi Nka Bi

No one should bite the other. A reminder that disagreement should be handled with respect and restraint.

Insert Symbol

Dwennimmen

The ram's horns. A symbol of strength combined with humility. Leadership and collaboration require both.

Insert Symbol

Boa Me Na Me Mmoa Wo

Help me and let me help you. Cooperation and mutual support allow people to achieve more together.

Growth and Possibility

When people work together well, new ideas emerge. These symbols explore creativity, transformation and the potential of shared effort.

Insert Symbol

Woforo Dua Pa A

When you climb a good tree you are supported. Good ideas attract encouragement and collective effort.

Insert Symbol

Nkyinkyim

Transformation and adaptability. Change and flexibility are part of creative work and innovation.

Insert Symbol

Dame Dame

Interdependence and shared fate. What affects one person or part of the group affects everyone.

Insert Symbol

Aya

The fern. A symbol of resilience and endurance. Groups must persevere through challenges together.